The membership of the Miscowaubik Club invite you...

To be part of the heritage...

At the turn of the 20th Century, Calumet was one of the largest and wealthiest cities in the State of Michigan. Rich in copper, the Calumet and Hecla Mining Company was producing half of the nation's copper. It was during the peak of this boom that the Miscowaubik Club was founded in 1903. It was a hub for social interaction and networking. On the Club's guest register are the names of famous business leaders, including Harvey Firestone, Henry Ford, Thomas Edison and E.G. Kingsford.

To be part of the community...

The rich history of Calumet and the Keweenaw Peninsula continues in the ambitious preservation efforts underway in the greater community. Located in the epicenter of the Keweenaw National Historic Park, the Miscowaubik Club stands as an icon to the rich mining history that once dominated the area. The Club is considered one of the finest examples of turn of the century architecture, culture and history throughout the Keweenaw Peninsula.

To be part of the fun...

Members have dining privileges at private clubs throughout the world. Whether you're in Dallas, Chicago or London, you can enjoy the service and cuisine only a private club can offer. Staff make it a point to know the members dietary needs and dining preferences. Professional, personalized service is a key feature of the dining experience at the Club.

To be a member of the Club...

The Miscowaubik Club has over 200 members. We invite you to join our membership. For a personal introduction to the Club and a tour, contact the Club Office at:
